

Dustball 500

Written by Andrew

Get signed up for the 2010 Dustball Rally 500, happening June 26th, 2010!

This is a great single-day event for those that either cannot make it to the big Dustball in August, or those that would like to train or brush up for it. Dustball HQ will be implementing new gimmick techniques and tactics during this event, which will be used on a larger scale in the longer Dustball. So if you want to get the inside scoop on new types of gimmicks, be sure not to miss the Dustball 500!
