Coming soon, the elite driving club of Southwest Texas is opening a new section in the DFW area.

Members will be invited to exclusive driving and social events. Not a car club, deanslist.us is a driving club that specializes in the higher learning of automobile driving excellence. Spirited driving is the most enjoyable aspect for members. There are a variety of events to keep your blood pumping, and the main event of the year that was started and annually hosted by deanslist.us: Dustball Rally.

Of course there are several other overnight excursions, mini-ralleis and more that members partake in....that members will either have first-pick or exclusive invitation to join.

Love driving? Love Dustball? Develop more camaraderie and get some benefits out of -- join Deanslist.us today.

From the area? Apply to join.
